

Nature Notes

My attention was drawn to a recent article in a newspaper regarding the emergence of midsummer butterflies. Apparently, the high frequency of sunny days this year has caused the emergence of some insects two or three weeks ahead of the norm. So, during a sunlit afternoon walk in the valley in mid-May, I am on the look-out for any sighting to match this trend. Unfortunately, there is a cool breeze in the air which takes the edge off the feeling of summer. There are a few butterflies to see – Orange Tip, Peacock, Common Blue and Speckled Wood – but nothing unexpected.

I carry on to the edge of a pond and I notice many diminutive Azure Blue Damselflies close to the edge of the water. There are also a couple of Broad-bodied Chasers which obligingly perch at the tip of an overhanging plant to help with identification. The latter are medium-sized dragonflies typical of early summer and exhibit distinctive flattened bodies and brown patches at the base of the wing.

Moving away from the pond, I walk into a field which was mowed in late winter. Now, it is full of tall, competing plants, in particular umbellifers with their flattish heads of off-white flowers. Although I continue looking for butterflies, my attention is drawn to a small, round, yellowish blob, less than a centimetre in length, partially obscured by the flowers. It is a crab spider; one I remember from my own garden some years ago. Beside her is the body of a Honey Bee and it is possible that I have interrupted the process of consuming the liquid soup from the much larger bee. There are many species of crab spider but the yellow colour makes this one, called misumena vatia, or flower crab spider, quite attractive. This is a female, given that males are minute, barely two or three millimetres in length.

Crab spiders get their name from their habit of moving sideways and this species possesses long front legs that add to the likeness of a crab. They do not create webs but lie in wait on the flowerhead, with those front legs extended, waiting for an insect to land. They prefer the prey to come to them. Vision is very important so they tend to hunt in the daytime. Unseen by the bee in this case, the spider has grabbed her prey and gone through the process of injecting venom to paralyze her victim. Digestive enzymes are then added. I am a little surprised by the fact that the yellow colour of this species of crab spider stands out slightly against the white flowers, but what I can see is not necessarily what the bee perceives. The spider is also a possible item of prey for a bird, so it pays to be inconspicuous for two reasons. Despite my attention, the crab spider makes no intention to move away, but persists in holding on to her dinner. When she eventually moves and retreats below the flowerhead, the spider and her dead bee are firmly attached.

St Germans Parish Council

Following the uncontested election on the 1st May 2025, the Parish Council have vacancies that can be filled by co-option. These are two seats on the Tideford ward and one on the St Germans ward. If you are interested in carrying out some work to ensure the Parish is maintained and its future is managed, please get in touch. Closing date for expressions of interest is the 27th June 2025.

A lot of care and effort is being done to look after the burial ground and work remains ongoing. An improved water supply has been installed, and a summarised version of the regulations is now displayed in the notice board. We have, in previous reports, asked that all artificial tributes and ornaments be removed to allow for better maintenance and compliance with the regulations. Unfortunately, there are many items that remain on some of the plots and these will be removed by the Parish Council if left. We understand this is personal to individual families but we hope our rules are respected and adhered to without the Parish Council having to intervene. Thank you.

The date of the next meeting is Monday, 30th June 2025 at the Eliot Hall, St Germans and starts at 18:30. Members of the public are welcome to attend. The agenda along with other documents relating to the Parish Council can be found on the Parish Council website.

A message from your Cornwall Councillors – Cllr Kate Ewert (Rame & St Germans) and Cllr Mark Gibbons (Looe East & Deviock)

Thank you to every single resident that put their faith in both of us to represent you on Cornwall Council.

Whether you voted for me in Rame and St Germans, or Mark in Looe East and Deviock, or you placed your vote elsewhere, we assure you that we will work tirelessly for each of you regardless.

It was an election of substantial change in Cornwall, where we saw the ruling Conservative administration all but wiped out on the Council – whether this was a vote against them individually, or a protest vote against the establishment now becomes sort of irrelevant because it is on all elected Cornwall Councillors to work together to get the best outcomes for Cornwall as we move forward.

For us, here in the Rame Peninsula & St Germans division and the Looe East & Deviock Division, we will be focusing on the priorities that we need for this area and that came up as we both spoke to residents during the election – those include (but are not limited too) truly affordable housing to keep our communities together, road improvements that are really needed, better public transport links from the villages to the train station in St Germans so that more residents can utilise the trains without clogging up St Germans village with cars parking and riding, securing investment into our villages, town and businesses and protecting our natural environment.

We are always available to help residents with Council related casework, and I would encourage you to get in touch if you think we can help or even if you are not sure – we could well be able to point you in the right direction.

My email, if you live in the Rame Peninsula & St Germans division is: cllr.kate.ewert@cornwall.gov.uk

Mark's email, if you live in the Looe East & Deviock division is: cllr.mark.gibbons@cornwall.gov.uk

Deviocck Parish Council

There will be two meetings in June: Thursday 12th (Full Council, 19:30) and Thursday 26th (Planning Committee, 18:30). All meetings take place at The Zone, Downderry Methodist Church. See Agendas for details prior to each meeting.

The Council: Since the Elections in May, we have six Councillors, a new Chair and Vice Chair, and a new Cornwall Councillor. Enormous thanks go to our former Cornwall Cllr Armand Toms for the hard work and invaluable support he provided to the Parish Council and to residents across the Parish and beyond, and we wish him a very happy retirement. We also thank Cllr Mark Gibbons for his energy and dedication as Parish Council Chair over the last four years. We welcome him as our new Cornwall Councillor and wish him all the best in his new role serving the parishes of Looe East & Deviocck.

Co-option: The Parish Council will be co-opting new Councillors as soon as possible across the three wards of Downderry (two vacancies), Seaton (one vacancy) and Hessenford (two vacancies). Co-option posters are on noticeboards; please contact the Clerk to receive further information and an application form.

For Hessenford in particular, if anyone living in and around Hessenford (including Narkurs) would like to know more about being a Councillor, the Clerk and a Councillor would be happy to meet you informally in the village to go through any questions you may have – please contact the Clerk to ask about this and she will arrange a time to suit all.

Tanver Yate: Changes continue at Tanver Yate, with the installation of a new bin and, in June, pedestrian and vehicle access gates. Phase 2 planting with the support of Forest for Cornwall will follow later in 2025.

Nudist beach, Downderry: The Parish Council has been made aware of anti-social behaviour relating to the nudist beach in Downderry. Should any of our residents (and indeed visitors) witness or experience any inappropriate sexual behaviour at the beach, please report it to the police as only the police have the power to address it. Reporting will also build up a picture of the frequency and seriousness of the issue. However, once you have reported, please do let the Parish Council know you have done so and we can monitor the situation.

Planning applications: To comment on a planning application on the Cornwall Council Planning site, search online for ‘cornwall council planning applications’. You will need to log in to use the Planning site. Any comments posted on the site are viewed by the Parish Council’s Planning Committee and Cornwall Council Planning Officers. See Agendas for applications due for discussion at the next Planning Committee meeting.

Forthcoming road closures around the parish: These can be found at <https://one.network/>.

For any other Parish Council business and news, go to our website at www.deviockparish.org.uk/.

The Parish Clerk can be contacted Monday to Friday by email at clerk.deviockpc@btinternet.com. The Parish Office at the Vestry in Downderry is open to the public on the first and third Wednesday of the month (non-meeting weeks), 14:00 -17:00 (tel: 01503-250052).

Understanding Hay Fever. Tips for Managing Symptoms:

As the warmer months approach, many of us look forward to spending more time outdoors. However, for those who suffer from hay fever, this time of year can bring a host of uncomfortable symptoms. Hay fever, also known as allergic rhinitis, is an allergic reaction to pollen, affecting millions of people in the UK each year.

What Causes Hay Fever?

Hay fever is triggered by pollen from trees, grasses, and weeds. When these tiny particles come into contact with the nose, eyes, and throat, they can cause an allergic reaction. Symptoms often include sneezing, a runny or blocked nose, itchy eyes, and a sore throat.

Managing Hay Fever Symptoms:

While hay fever can be bothersome, there are several ways to manage symptoms effectively:

1. Monitor Pollen Levels: Keep an eye on daily pollen forecasts and try to stay indoors when levels are high, especially during early morning and late afternoon.

2. Keep Windows Closed: To prevent pollen from entering your home, keep windows and doors shut, particularly on high pollen days.
3. Use Over-the-Counter Medications: Antihistamines and nasal sprays can help alleviate symptoms. These are readily available from pharmacies and supermarkets.
4. Wear Sunglasses: Protect your eyes from pollen by wearing wraparound sunglasses when outdoors.
5. Shower and Change Clothes: After spending time outside, shower and change your clothes to remove pollen from your skin and hair.
6. Consider Air Filters: Using an air filter in your home can help reduce pollen levels indoors.

When to Seek Medical Advice:

If your hay fever symptoms are severe or not relieved by over-the-counter treatments, it may be worth consulting one of our pharmacists or your GP. They can provide advice on prescription medications or other treatments that may be more effective.

By taking these steps, you can enjoy the beauty of the season while keeping hay fever symptoms at bay. Remember, managing hay fever is about finding what works best for you and making small adjustments to your daily routine.

Greetings from everyone at the chapel in St Germans. I write this on a beautifully sunny day anticipating the summer ahead. Our Coffee and Cake Morning this month is on the 21st and is for WaterAid. Please join us and have a happy morning meeting with friends.

Looking forward to our very special celebration of 200 years of worship at the chapel in St Germans, if anyone has any memories or photographs we would be delighted to receive them and include them in a booklet to celebrate.

Please feel free to join us at any of these events when we look forward to seeing you.

Hello Neighbours. As many of you know, we recently announced a change to advertising on the DaSRA Facebook page. This decision prompted a wide range of responses, and we would like to thank everyone who took the time to share their thoughts - both supportive and critical.

We are a small group of volunteers doing our best to keep this page a friendly, useful space for over 2,500 members. Our aim has always been to ensure that the group stays focused on community matters, without it becoming overwhelmed by promotional content.

Sadly, following the recent update, some comments and direct messages have been hurtful and unnecessarily personal. We understand that not everyone agrees with the changes, but we do ask that discussions remain respectful. This is a community effort, and we are all here for the same reason - to support each other and the place we live.

That said, we have listened to the feedback and want to offer a fair compromise.

Rather than allowing ongoing advertising posts, we will be creating a Local Business Directory - a document hosted under the 'Files' section of the group page, where members can easily find and support local services.

We hope to publish the first edition by the end of June 2025 and update it annually. Details of how to include your business are shown below.

Maura Swabey (info@dasra.co.uk)

Chair of Downderry and Seaton Residents Association

If you run a business and would like to be included in the Local Business Directory, please email the following details to ads-dasra@hotmail.com by the end of June 2025:

- Business name
- Contact number / Email address
- Website
- Whether you are based in Downderry or Seaton, or just serve people in those areas
- A brief description of your services

Please note: It is up to you to ensure the information you send is complete and accurate. We won't be able to chase missing details, and any incomplete submissions may not be included. As volunteers, we may not respond to emails individually - but rest assured, we will be working behind the scenes to compile the Directory in time.

The listing is offered free of charge and is not an endorsement by DaSRA. As always, we encourage word-of-mouth recommendations and discussions on the group about trusted local services.

Once the Directory is published, we won't be able to make changes until the next update in June 2026. In the meantime, general advertising posts will no longer be approved.

For our local hospitality, charity and wellbeing/fitness businesses, we will gladly post your weekly updates to let the community know 'what's on', however, we suggest that you check the rules for clarity.

Thank you for your understanding and support – it is what helps keep this group going.
Warm regards

The DaSRA Facebook Admin Team

Our May meeting was our AGM. Members met to elect their committee and president. We also considered the resolution which will form the basis of our National Federation campaign for the next year.

Next month our speaker is from Cornwall Search and Rescue. Why not come along and learn about the work this organisation does. We welcome women of all ages and backgrounds to our friendly meetings and there is always a hot drink and cake or biscuits. We meet in Widegates Village hall on the first Tuesday of the month at 14:00.

What a lovely start our group has had with this sunny weather joining us when we have been out and about the county. We went along to Talland Bay Hotel to sample their lovely new lunchtime menu. The trip was made a lot easier by our wonderful community bus driving us there. We have also made a trip to the Canteen at Maker Heights sampling their wares. Our craft group has been busy preparing for the WI competition at the Royal Cornwall Showground in June.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Caroline and Steve Frith from the Glass Shack for their sponsorship of the Seaton boat for the last few years - they will be missed in our community. A big thank you to Debbie and Chris Hartley from the Smugglers Inn who have kindly agreed to sponsor the boat this year.

If you would like to join us for our next monthly meeting on Tuesday 10th June please let us know. We have a speaker who will appeal to the dog lovers in our community. If anyone has any questions about our group please contact us at downderryandseatonwi@gmail.com

The Zone

We extend our thanks to DaSRA for their generous donation, which has enabled us to install a modern, adaptable lighting system in the main hall. We also greatly appreciate the gift of their old notice board, thoughtfully refurbished by Chris and placed proudly at our gate, enhancing how we share updates on classes, activities, and news.

In our efforts to welcome native wildlife, we have introduced bat boxes and created a hedgehog gateway, fostering a more inclusive natural space. This is complemented by our inclusion in the 'No mow May' programme.

On the development front, we have secured significant funding, £80k from Cornwall Council through the Community Infrastructure Levy and have advanced to the second stage of Shared Prosperity Fund, with a positive outcome very likely within the next month. Thanks again to DaSRA's support, we successfully applied for planning permission to transition from a place of worship to a community building - an application that has now been approved by Cornwall Council, with strong support from the Parish. The Steering Group remains in discussion with the Methodist Circuit regarding the building's purchase for community ownership.

We are confident that these strides will strengthen our Community Wellbeing Hub, enabling essential improvements and ensuring a lasting presence in the Parish.

Simple Ways To Save The Planet

Be a community player.

We are so lucky in our area of Cornwall to have such vibrant communities. For me, being a part of the community is one of the greatest joys of living in a village. But how do we preserve it? Do we too often rely on the same people doing the work to make things happen? Here is my short guide to being a community player. The first few points are (I hope) mandatory. The final few are ones to work towards.

1. Live in your community. Too many second homes kill communities. If you have a second home, do please consider renting it to a local person. If you work away and need two homes, then throw yourself into the community when you can.
2. Support your local businesses - shops, pubs, restaurants.
3. Support local events - plays, dances, bands. Without support organisers won't have the resources to put more on.
4. Join a local club. There are lots, from gardening, yoga, dancing, art, mother and toddler groups, church groups and many more. Again numbers are important to make them work. If there is something missing that you would like to do, start up your own group!
5. Volunteer - this could be at a community shop, driving a community bus, delivering Nut Trees, helping in a community garden. This could be a little further afield in places that serve our villages, such as Liskeard Library or Livewire Youth Music. Find something you enjoy and meet likeminded people.
6. Become a member of a committee. Every group needs a committee to operate and are always glad of members.
7. Join the Parish Council. If you are a young person reading this, I particularly urge you to consider this, as councils are often short of young voices.
8. Take a post of chair, secretary or treasurer in a local organisation or council. It might seem daunting, but these posts are often difficult to fill and can be very rewarding.

A big thank you to everyone who already puts in time - you may not always feel it, but you are very much appreciated. To anyone who has yet to put a toe in the water, welcome aboard! Being part of your community is transformative and satisfying.

Community Bus News

Well first of all let me say what a privilege it is to have taken over from Kevin Done as Chairman of the Donderry and District Community Bus Association. Kevin can look back with immense pride over the last six years where his leadership and guidance has been pivotal in maintaining this vital community service. Whilst it is not a total goodbye, as Kevin will remain in the fold, I am sure all current committee members, drivers and regular passengers will join me in expressing our heartfelt gratitude for his time at the helm and the dedication and good grace he brought to the task. Thank you Kevin!

Our Mission is to provide a safe, reliable, and targeted minibus service that meets the needs of communities in Seaton/Donderry and the surrounding area

dscombus.com

Whilst he is a hard act to follow, the importance of our bus service in enhancing the lives of those in our community is foremost in my mind and I very much look forward to putting my energy into its continued success. One area I can announce up front is the development of our very own website (www.dscombus.com) which is now live. As well as continuously updating you on our timetables, events and excursions, it also contains our 'Plan' that explains what it is we are trying to do and how we intend to deliver it. So if you get a moment, take a look, pop it in your favourites, and let us know if there is anything else you might like to see on the site. We will continue to contribute to the Nut Tree and the DASRA website as usual.

As the summer approaches, we have some very exciting excursions in the offing:

- Royal Cornwall Show. 6th and 7th June, leaving at 09:15 for a four hour visit. Way too much to go into details of the show here but if you fancy the best in entertainment, shopping and competition associated with this showcase event for Cornish agriculture, and indeed everything that is good about Cornwall, then this is an event not to be missed. More details are on the website.

- Dartmouth River Cruise. 18th June, leaving at 09:30 for a four hour visit. Sailing the beautiful River Dart between the delightful and unique towns of Dartmouth and Totnes. This cruise is a lovely relaxing 90 minute trip with the bus dropping you at Totnes and picking you up again at Dartmouth.

We continue to run weekly scheduled services to Plymouth and Liskeard on Tuesdays and Thursdays respectively, with a 09:30 departure time from Broads Yard in DOWNDERRY. We also schedule in monthly runs to Looe, Tavistock, Truro and Totnes so please check the monthly timetable to see when we have plumbed them in.

Details of the community bus timetable, excursions and fund-raising events can all be found on the website. The timetable is also available in the Nut Tree, on village noticeboards, and the DASRA website (www.dasra.co.uk). For all passenger bookings please call Bev Brighton on 01503 250994. For 300 Club and details of the monthly draw, please call Jo Woodley on 01503 250489. For any other questions relating to our bus please feel free to contact me directly on dscombus@gmail.com.

Tina Jefferis Notice

Further to last month's announcement Tina Jefferis' family would love to see those who knew her at a service to celebrate her life on Saturday 28th June starting at 11:00 in St Nicolas' Church and / or afterwards in the Village Hall for refreshments and remembering. Her wish was "No mourning, I've had a wonderful life" so wear something bright. If anyone would like to make a donation in her name it will be split between Donderry & Seaton Village Hall and Cornwall Hospice Care in keeping with her attachments to both.
